Open. Loving. Thinking. Doing.

BUILDING USE POLICY

The following policies and procedures are designed to provide for the general well-being and care of the building, grounds, and other properties of Springdale Presbyterian Church, Louisville, Kentucky, and are to be followed by members and non-members in the interest of preserving this historic property.

1. Members of Springdale Presbyterian Church, its organizations, missions, and other groups approved by Session, the governing body, have priority for using the church facilities when such use does not conflict with scheduled events.
2. All non-members of Springdale, whether individuals or groups, shall submit a Building/Room Reservation Form to the Office Manager for approval before any events are scheduled on the church calendar. Any members of Springdale, whether individuals or groups, scheduling recurring activities for the use of church facilities shall retain a Reservation Form on file with the Office Manager.
3. Persons or groups using the facilities shall limit activities to assigned rooms or areas.
4. Groups using the facilities shall use reusable service ware (plates, silverware, glassware, napkins). For large, formal events, these items are best sourced from a catering company. Groups renting the facility are responsible for returning all rented items to the catering company and in the condition required by the company (scraped, rinsed, etc). For smaller, less formal events, Springdale can provide dinner and salad plates and silverware and serving utensils. Groups should provide their own biodegradable consumable supplemental supplies (napkins, paper towels, coffee, drink cups, etc.) Groups are urged to follow recycling guidelines as posted above receptacles and to take all recyclables to the exterior recycle bins. All trash generated by groups should be taken to the dumpster. If Springdale's service ware is used, it should be scraped and rinsed and loaded in the dishwashers and washed or hand-washed and put away where found.
5. All personal items shall be removed from the building at the conclusion of any event. Items left unclaimed for 7 days will be donated to charity or discarded.
6. When the kitchen is used, it is to be cleaned at the conclusion of any event.
7. Any items left in the refrigerators will be discarded.
